

Justice... Professionalism... Service... Since 1886

1.0 Law & Legal CLE Credit – A/V Approval #1050969

Recording Date – March 3, 2017

Recording Availability – October 18, 2017

Meeting Location	Date	Time	Topic
King County Bar Association 1200 Fifth Avenue - Suite 700 Seattle, WA	Friday, March 3, 2017	12:10 PM to 1:30 PM	Saving the Worst For Last - How to Avoid the Attorney and Client Angst For Not Completing QDROS in a Timely Manner

AGENDA

12:10 PM Introductions/Lunch

12:20 PM Presentation: ‘Saving the Worst For Last: How to Avoid the Attorney and Client Angst For Not Completing QDROS in a Timely Manner’, by Dru S. Horenstein, Dru Horenstein Family Law PLLC

- What kind of Retirement Plans are ERISA Plans
- Words of Warning and Caution (If Plan Not Identified)
- How to Identify a Defined Benefit Plan
- How to Identify a Defined Contribution Plan
- When and how to divide the retirement asset, when to offset against other assets
- Top Ten Checklist for Defined Benefit Plans
- Top Ten Checklist for Defined Contribution
- Examples of Vague and Unclear Decree Language

1:30 PM Evaluations & Adjourn

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY:

Dru S. Horenstein, Dru Horenstein Family Law PLLC - Dru S. Horenstein, a member of the Clark County, King County, Pierce County and Snohomish County bar associations; practices law in Washington preparing domestic relations orders that facilitate the division of retirement assets in family law. Admitted to the Washington Bar in 1992, she has been a contributing editor and author of the updates for the three volume West Publishing Co. publication on Family and Community Property Law. She is the first Washington State attorney admitted to the QDRONES, a national group of attorneys, pension administrators, actuaries and retirement financial specialists devoted to the study and education of new professionals in the area of qualified domestic relations orders. She regularly speaks to family law attorneys all over the state on various issues regarding the division of retirement assets.