SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Hon. Mary Jo Heston, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, WDWA Tacoma - Mary Jo Heston currently is a United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Western District of Washington. She previously was a shareholder in the Seattle and Portland Offices of Lane Powell PC where her practice involved commercial litigation and transactional matters with an emphasis on business reorganizations, cross border insolvency cases and the acquisition of troubled businesses. Between 1988 and 1993 Ms. Heston served as the first Region 18 United States Trustee overseeing bankruptcy cases and fiduciaries in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Alaska and Montana. She also is a former law clerk to a federal district court judge and a bankruptcy judge and a former estate administrator of the Tacoma federal bankruptcy court. Ms. Heston taught bankruptcy courses for twenty years at both Seattle University and University of Washington Schools of Law.

She is a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy and an active participant in both professional organizations and community service organizations currently serving or having served in leadership/board positions for the American Bankruptcy Institute, INSOL International, the Washington State Bar Association - Debtor Creditor Section, the Turnaround Management Association and CENTS.

Judge Heston is a frequent international, national and regional speaker and author on topics including international insolvency issues, creditors' rights issues, and commercial and consumer insolvency issues. In October she made a presentation to over fifty African insolvency judges and regulators on ways to improve their effectiveness and efficiency in dealing with insolvency cases and fiduciaries.
