

Justice... Professionalism... Service... Since 1886

1.0 Law & Legal CLE Credit – A/V Approval #1070579

Recording Date – March 22, 2018

Recordign Availability – May 22, 2018

Meeting Location	Date	Time	Topic
King County Bar Association 1200 Fifth Avenue - Suite 700 Seattle, WA	Thursday, March 22, 2018	12:00 PM to 1:10 PM	Environmental Class Actions in 2018

AGENDA

12:00 PM Introduction

12:10 PM Presentation: ‘Environmental Class Actions in 2018’, by Dan Mensher, Keller Rohrback L.L.P.

- What good is a class action for environmental issues?
- Overview of class action requirements
- Issues particular to environmental class actions
- Recent cases and trends

1:10 PM Adjourn

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Dan Mensher, Keller Rohrback L.L.P. – Dan Mensher practices in Keller Rohrback’s nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group with a focus on complex environmental and consumer protection litigation. He enjoys collaborating with his colleagues and clients to identify problems and find creative, convincing solutions. Dan has litigated important environmental and consumer cases across the country in federal and state court. He’s one of the attorneys representing the King, Skagit, Pierce, and other Counties in Washington in their fight to hold opioid manufacturers accountable. Before joining the firm, Dan was an environmental law professor at Lewis & Clark Law School in Portland, Oregon, where he also litigated cases involving toxic waste, water pollution, and natural resource management. He has sat on governmental advisory boards and helped to draft key environmental regulations in place today. Dan uses his passion and experience to protect our environment and the people and communities that rely on clean air, water, and products.