SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Stacey L. Romberg, Stacey L. Romberg, Attorney at Law – Stacey Romberg has practiced law for over 25 years, focusing her practice on business law, estate planning and probate. She earned her B.A. in 1985 from Idaho State University, graduating with High Honors, a J.D. from the University of Idaho College of Law in 1987, graduating cum laude, and an LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center in 1991, graduating with distinction. Prior to opening her own law firm in 1999, Ms. Romberg drafted legislation for the U.S. Senate’s Office of Legislative Counsel and worked in private practice both in Washington, D.C. and Seattle.

Ms. Romberg enjoys writing, and has published many articles in a variety of publications including the GPSolo eReport (a publication of the American Bar Association’s Solo, Small Firm and General Practice Division), the Puget Sound Business Journal and the King County Bar Bulletin. She frequently speaks at a variety of venues including radio programs, continuing legal education courses, events sponsored by business organizations, and programs sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration. A former college tennis player, Ms. Romberg proudly serves on the Advisory Board of the non-profit Tennis Outreach Programs ("TOPs").
