Oren’s experience includes pre-bankruptcy planning, including advising directors and officers on insolvency issues, and exploring out-of-court and non-bankruptcy options in the first instance. In bankruptcy cases, Oren’s experience includes cash collateral and DIP financing matters, intercreditor disputes, reclamation and section 503(b)(9) issues, bankruptcy sales under section 363, valuation disputes, chapter 11 plan and post-confirmation trust formation issues, fraudulent transfer and preference litigation, and application of safe harbor provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

During the 2008 financial crisis, Oren was a member of the legal team advising President Obama’s Auto Task Force in the General Motors, Chrysler, and Delphi Automotive chapter 11 cases. More recently, he has advised state and local leaders on public pension matters and service level municipal distress.

Prior to joining Stoel Rives in 2012, Oren practiced corporate finance and restructuring law in New York City for almost nine years, including with the business finance and restructuring departments of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP.
