

Justice... Professionalism... Service... Since 1886

1.0 Ethics CLE Credit – A/V Approval #1118826

Recording Date - September 6, 2019

Meeting Location	Date	Time	Topic
King County Bar Association 1200 Fifth Avenue - Suite 700 Seattle, WA	Friday, September 6, 2019	2:00 PM to 3:10 PM	Specific Ethical Consideration in Collaborative Cases

AGENDA

2:00 PM Introduction

2:10 PM Presentation: ‘Specific Ethical Consideration in Collaborative Cases’, by Loretta Story, Courtney Story and Wil Miller, Story Law Office

- What happens when one party does not want to hire an attorney in CL case
- How to work as a team in CL case and what that means under RPC’s
- When one professional identifies with a client, assuming that role
- Advertising for CL cases; what is ethical and what is not

3:10 PM Adjourn

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Loretta Story, Courtney Story and Wil Miller, Story Law Office - Loretta Story focuses her practice in the area of Family Law with an emphasis on collaborative law and mediation. Loretta’s practice includes divorce, separation, custody and support issues and domestic violence. She brings over 25 years of legal experience to her practice. Loretta believes that through the use of the collaborative process, family law matters can be resolved in a respectful manner without the threat of litigation. She welcomes the opportunity to serve parties as either a collaborative attorney or a mediator.

Loretta co-founded the Collaborative Law Section of King County Bar Association, served on the King County Collaborative Law Board for 6 years, and Collaborative Professionals of Washington for 6 years.

Courtney Story, Story Law Office - Courtney Story represents and counsels clients in all aspects of family law with an emphasis on Collaborative Family Law and family dispute resolution/mediation. She also continues to litigate family law matters when appropriate. Courtney's depth and breadth of experience gives her the practical understanding to effectively represent clients in the most emotionally and financially complex family law matters. She brings over 16 years of legal experience to her practice.

In addition to being a member of the Washington State Bar Association, she is a member of to the King County Bar Association (chair Collaborative Law Section 2015) to International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, King County Collaborative Law (Board of Trustees 2014-present; President 2017-19), and Collaborative Professionals of Washington. East King County Bar Association (Board of Trustees 2006). She is admitted to the U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit and U.S. District Court for Eastern and Western Districts. Courtney is a graduate of the University of Washington School of Law. She is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell and has been recognized as a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers/peers.

Wil Miller, Story Law Office - Douglas Wilson "Wil" Miller graduated from Duke Law School in 1988 and worked for a decade as a county prosecutor in the DA's Office of New York City and Seattle. In 2013 he started practicing family law, and a year later began Collaborative Practice. He is currently an attorney at Story Law in Bellevue.