

King County Bar Association

Sports Law: Athlete Agency Law Keeping Athletes & Agents on the Field

December 12, 2019

9:00-10:00am

King County Bar Association, 1200 Fifth Avenue, Suite 700, Seattle

1.00 Law & Legal CLE Credit

OVERVIEW

- Universe of athlete agent law and regulations
 - Federal and state laws
 - NCAA bylaws and university registration
- Sports agent selection
- Lawyer role and limits

AGENDA

- 8:45-9:00am Registration and Coffee Service
- 9:00-10:00am Sports Law: Athlete Agency Law – Keeping Athletes & Agents on the Field
Brian Brunkow, Esq. | Attorney at Law
- 10:00am Evaluations & Adjourn

FACULTY

Brian Brunkow, Esq. | Attorney at Law

Brian Brunkow, Esq., is a northwest native and graduated cum laude with a business law focus from Seattle University School of Law. Mediation Dispute Resolution Certificate Program, Seattle University School of Law; Collaborative Team-Based Negotiation Program, Seattle Collaborative Law Training Group. Bar Licenses: CA & WA. Brian has worked extensively in regulatory compliance, corporate training, and dispute resolution. Outside of work, Brian is a youth football coach, sports parenting author, and speaks at west coast coaching clinics on student athlete development and NCAA athletic recruiting practices. Brian also covers NCAA recruiting compliance and sports agency at his YouTube channel, Zero Offseason.