SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Claire E. Bellefleur, John G. Llewellyn, PLLC - Claire E. Bellefleur became a lawyer to help families navigate end of life issues, which are often the legal issues a person may experience. She provides her clients practical navigation through complex Guardianship, Trust, Estate and Probate issues, including TEDRA litigation, mediation, and settlements. Claire E. Bellefleur grew up in the South Puget Sound where her family has deep roots dating back to the 1800s. She attended undergrad at the University of Washington, graduating in 2005 with an English and Philosophy degree. She then obtained her Juris Doctor at the University of San Francisco in 2012. She is licensed in both California and Washington. Claire E. Bellefleur enjoys spending her spare time with her husband and her energetic 3 and half year old son, Lowell, working in her garden, and cooking for friends.
