

KING COUNTY BAR

1.00 Law & Legal CLE Credit – A/V Approval #1150014

Recording Date: September 16, 2020

AGENDA

12:00 PM Introduction

12:10 PM Presentation: ‘Managing a Workforce in the Age of COVID: Practical Guidance to Help Clients Steer Clear of Employment Pitfalls’, by Katie Loberstein, Miller Nash Graham & Dunn

This presentation will address some of the common legal issues facing employers during the COVID-19 pandemic, including issues related to managing a remote workforce, as well as issues related to reopening the physical workplace. The goal of the presentation is to provide business attorneys with practical guidance that can help their employer clients avoid common legal pitfalls.

1:15 PM Adjourn

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Katie Loberstein, Miller Nash Graham & Dunn - Katie is an attorney on the Miller Nash Graham & Dunn employment and labor relations team, where she has experience defending clients in litigation before state and federal courts on a wide range of employment-related claims, including wrongful termination, wage and hour, discrimination, and breach of contract. Katie also provides guidance to clients on a variety of employment issues, including leave law compliance, workplace investigations, disability accommodations, and termination issues.