AGENDA

12:00 PM Introduction

12:10 PM Presentation: ‘The Anatomy of Financial Statements’, by Lorraine Barrick, Lorraine Barrick LLC

They say that lawyers are what the smart kids in class become, who don’t want to have to do math. Guess what? We have to anyway. Or at least we have to be able to communicate with those who do. Ms. Barrick will give a basic overview of standard financial statements, and explain the role of the public accountant in preparing, reviewing, and auditing financial statements.

1:15 PM Adjourn

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Lorraine Barrick, Lorraine Barrick LLC – Lorraine Barrick has more than 30 years’ experience in accounting and finance. Her focus is financial analysis in dispute settings and business and intangible asset valuation for tax and litigation matters. Lorraine has extensive experience in both domestic and international disputes. Lorraine worked for 15 years at Arthur Andersen. While there, she worked on the audits of public and private companies, and then in economic and financial consulting, including litigation consulting and business valuation. She served as Partner in Charge of Business Valuation and Litigation Consulting for Andersen’s Hong Kong office and as a partner in Andersen’s Seattle Economic and Financial Consulting Practice. Lorraine has experience working in civil and criminal litigation, arbitration, mediation and regulatory settings. She works on behalf of public and private companies and individuals as well as regulatory authorities such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Securities and Futures Commission, Commercial Crime Bureau, and Department of Justice in Hong Kong. She has offered expert testimony in a variety of settings.
