

KING COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

Bankruptcy Law November Section Meeting

0.75 Law & Legal CLE Credit – A/V Approval #1214345

Recording Date: November 9th, 2021

Meeting Location	Date	Time	Topic
The Safety of Your Home	Tuesday, November 9, 2021	12:00 PM to 1:15 PM	Treatment of Commercial Leases Involving Residential Property Under Bankruptcy Code § 365

For all KCBA sections, credit submittal to the State Bar occurs within 30 days of the program

AGENDA

12:00 PM Introduction

12:10 PM Presentation: 'Treatment of Commercial Leases Involving Residential Property Under Bankruptcy Code § 365', by Christine Tobin-Presser, Bush Kornfeld LLP

This presentation will discuss a debtor's rights and obligations under section 365 where a lease is commercial in nature but involves property used for residential purposes.

1:15 PM Adjourn

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Christine Tobin-Presser, Bush Kornfeld LLP - Christine Tobin-Presser is a partner in the Seattle law firm of Bush Kornfeld LLP where her practice emphasizes commercial creditor-debtor issues, out-of-court workout agreements, and Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganizations and liquidations. Christine is a vice chair of the Administration and Courts Subcommittee of the ABA Business Law Section, former chair of the King County Bar Association Creditor Debtor section, and has served on the executive committee of the WSBA Creditor Debtor Rights section. Christine previously served as a Ninth Circuit Lawyer Representative. She is a Chambers USA recognized bankruptcy and restructuring attorney and has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America since 2018.
