

KING COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

Collaborative Law October Section Meeting

1.00 Law & Legal CLE Credit – A/V Approval #1214900

Recording Date: October 1st, 2021

---

Meeting Location	Date	Time	Topic
The Safety of Your Home	Friday, October 1, 2021	2:00 PM to 3:10 PM	Everything You Wanted to Know About Collaborative Coaching but Were Afraid to Ask

---

AGENDA

2:00 PM Introduction

2:10 PM Presentation: 'Everything You Wanted to Know About Collaborative Coaching but Were Afraid to Ask', by Anne Lucas, International Academy of Collaborative Professionals

- What to do when mental illness rears its head
- Navigating coaching and Collaborative in the COVID world
- How best to prepare your clients for coaching and more
- Anne will share her years of wisdom and experience and entertain even your most provocative questions. All in service of creating the strongest container and Collaborative process for your clients, their families and the entire Collaborative Team

3:10 PM Adjourn

---

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Anne Lucas, International Academy of Collaborative Professionals - Anne R. Lucas MA LMHC is a mediator, coach, teacher/trainer in Kirkland, Washington. She works as a Divorce Coach in Collaborative Practice, assisting couples in creating healthy divorce options and post-divorce relationship, a mediator helping resolve family disputes with creative solutions and a parent coach for post-divorce families. She was a co-founder of the Seattle Collaborative Law Training Group, a frequent presenter at the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals forums and along with Nancy Cameron, developed and taught the IACP Leadership Academy in 2013. She retired from her post as an adjunct faculty member of Saybrook University and as the Clinical Director for The Evergreen Clinic.

Anne is currently President of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals and a past President of both King County Collaborative Law and Collaborative Professionals of Washington.

---