SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Katrina S. Zafiro, ZafiroLaw - Katrina Zafiro practices family law and immigration law in Seattle, Washington. She started her own practice more than 15 years ago. Because her office is in the Seattle metropolitan area where there are many foreign national employees, she is frequently sought after by clients seeking both family law and immigration law legal advice. Additionally, she has special interest in cases involving invalidity of marriage, immigration self-petitions, 751 waiver cases, and defense against enforcement of affidavit of support obligations.

Katrina Zafiro received her undergraduate degree in Linguistics at San Jose State University in California and worked in the tech industry in Silicon Valley, helping to develop speech recognition technology before Siri and Alexa ever existed. While in law school at the University of Washington School of Law, she worked at Columbia Legal Services under supervision of now Commissioner Jennie Laird and Judge Janet Helson. She has been a volunteer at the KCBA Family Law Legal Clinic for several years and is currently on the KCBA Judicial Candidate Evaluation Committee.
