SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Todd Maybrown, Allen, Hansen, Maybrown & Offenbecher, P.S. - Todd Maybrown earned his B.A. in Economics from Wesleyan University, and his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School. Mr. Maybrown is the Managing Partner with Allen Hansen Maybrown & Offenbecher PS in Seattle, Washington. He has represented individuals and businesses in a broad range of litigation and appellate cases since 1990. For more than 30 years, he has provided the highest quality legal representation to clients facing a full spectrum of criminal charges, civil claims, administrative proceedings and regulatory defense matters. He is recognized for his expertise in the defense of capital murder and other serious felony cases. Recently, Mr. Maybrown’s practice has emphasized the defense of complex federal cases, including cases involving drug offenses and allegations of conspiracy, racketeering, fraud, financial crimes, copyright infringement, and violations of health care, currency, environmental, and securities laws. He also provides legal advice to businesses and individuals facing investigations from federal and state regulatory agencies, as well as vigorous representation at trial and during all stages of appellate proceedings.

Mr. Maybrown is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Washington School of Law, where he teaches in the Trial Advocacy Program. He is also a member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, Washington Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and American Trial Lawyers Association.
